Stylists take a snip at a time for charity

Sisters Brooke, Ashley, Paige and Chloe awaiting their turn for haircuts as part of drive for Locks of Love at Julia A. Traphagen School in Waldwick last week. Englewood's Blush Salon, whose owners are parents of students at the school, organized the event. Students were offered a cut, style and blow dry in return for their donations, which are fashioned into wigs for ill children and others who have lost theirs during medical treatments.
