

On Sunday, March 25th Blush Salon in Englewood, New Jersey held a Hair donating event to benefit Zichron Menacham.

Owners Anne Beman and Jonathan Devia continue to lead the charge of volunteerism in the Englewood community each year by asking their staff of eight to donate their time. This year the Salon opened on a Sunday when it is normally closed for business.

The event proved successful with over 50 hair donations, and $8,650 dollars in donations having been raised to date. Many family member also attended the event to support the participants, who received gift bags and a certificate for their participation.

Blush would like to thank the local businesses who offer their support by providing food & drink for the participants.

If you would like to donate to Zichron Menachem, please do so by clicking this link ( add link on site for )zichron.org